

The award created to celebrate the efforts of teachers of the French-language

Every year, two teachers of French (one in primary and one in secondary school) will be selected for their significant and committed contribution to French language education in their school and community.

COMPETITION RULES FOR 2023

> IMPORTANT DATES

- Teachers must submit their application form by the 31st of October 2023
- The award ceremony will be held on the 25th of November 2023

> WHO CAN APPLY?

The award is designed for French-language Primary and Secondary teachers based in the United Kingdom teaching in the UK school system.

Application may be submitted by teachers themselves or by someone in their stead.

> HOW TO APPLY?

To apply, teachers must complete the application form, have it signed and stamped by their head teacher, and submit it to projects-education@institut-francais.org.uk by the 31st of October 2023.

> THE JURY

The jury is made of national members experienced French language practitioners and membres of the Institut français du Royaume-Uni who will pay attention to the following criteria:

- the participants' record of successful French teaching at a school, including innovative language teaching and cross curricular activities,
- the participants' successful introduction of French teaching at a school (e.g., first foreign language or new language),
- the participants' initiatives to promote good progress and love of learning French.

> AWARD CEREMONY

The award ceremony will be held on the 25th of November 2023 at the Institut français du Royaume-Uni in London.

The selected winners will receive:

- First prize winner: £250 gift voucher and a tablet
- Second prize winner: a tablet.

> CONTACTS

Teachers willing to participate may contact projects-education@institut-francais.org.uk for further information.

GOOD LUCK!

Supported by TV5
MONDE